PART IV

DUTIES OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS, NON-FINANCIAL BUSINESS ENTITIES AND PROFESSIONALS AND CERTAIN OTHER PERSONS

Identification
customers.

- 15. (1) A financial institution shall take reasonable measures to
- (a) establish the true identity of a customer; and
 - (b) verify the identity of a customer by means of reliable documents, data or information from an independent source, where
 - (i) the customer requests the institution to enter into a business arrangement or conduct an occasional transaction with the customer;
 - (ii) doubt exists about the veracity or adequacy of customer identification data previously obtained in respect of the customer; or
 - (iii) there is a suspicion of money laundering or financing of terrorism in connection with the customer.
- (2) A financial institution shall take reasonable measures to establish whether a customer is acting on behalf of another person.
- (3) Where it appears to a financial institution that a customer is acting on behalf of another person, the institution shall take reasonable measures to
- (a) establish the true identity not only of the customer but also of the person on whose behalf or for whose ultimate benefit the customer may be acting;

- (b) verify the identity of both the customer and the person on whose behalf or for whose ultimate benefit the customer may be acting by means of reliable documents, data or information from an independent source; and
- (c) establish whether the customer is authorised to act on behalf of the person in the capacity and in the proposed business arrangement or occasional transaction in which he acts or seeks to act.
- (4) Where a customer of a financial institution is not an individual, the institution shall take reasonable measures to

 - (a) establish the true identity of the individual who is the beneficial owner of the customer; and
 - (b) verify the identity of the individual by means of reliable documents, data or information from an independent source.
- (5) A financial institution shall, for the purpose of taking reasonable measures to identify a person pursuant to this section, require the person to produce his identification record.
- (6) In determining what constitutes reasonable measures with respect to establishing and verifying the identity of a person for the purposes of this section, regard shall be had to all the circumstances of the case and in particular to

- (3) Where the Director has reasonable grounds to believe that
- (a) an investigation in relation to a person should be conducted for the purposes of this Act; and
 - (b) information or a document from the records of a public authority is necessary for the purposes of the investigation, subject to section 49, the public authority shall, at the request of the Director, provide the information or document to the Director.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, a financial institution shall, within such time as may be specified by the Director, or in the absence of a specified time, within a reasonable time, comply with any instruction issued or request made to the institution by the Director under this section.

MONEY LAUNDERING AND FINANCING OF TERRORISM
(PREVENTION AND CONTROL) ACT, 2011 – 23

(5) Where a financial institution contravenes subsection (4), the licence of the financial institution may be suspended until the institution complies with the instruction or request.

On site inspections.

31. (1) The Authority may, in writing, authorise any member of its staff or such other person as may be trained for the purpose to conduct an inspection in accordance with this section to determine whether a financial institution is in compliance with this Act.

(2) A financial institution shall permit an authorised officer to enter, during normal working hours or at any other reasonable time, any premises or place belonging to, or in the possession or control of the financial institution or any place where anything is done in respect of the business of the financial institution or documents relating to the business of the financial institution are kept, for the purpose of conducting an inspection.

(3) An authorised officer may

- (a) inspect the operation of the business of the financial institution and any documents relating to the business of the financial institution;
- (b) require a director, officer, auditor, manager, member or employee of the financial institution, as the case may be, to
 - (i) attend at premises or a place referred to in subsection (2) with the authorised officer;
 - (ii) give the authorised officer reasonable assistance with the inspection; and
 - (iii) answer any question relating to the business of the financial institution or the administration and enforcement of this Act, orally or in writing;
- (c) take a note of or make a copy of any document relating to the business of the financial institution or relevant to the administration and enforcement of this Act; and

(d) where the authorised officer has reasonable grounds to believe that this Act has been contravened, seize and take away any document or other article that may afford evidence of the contravention.

(4) Where an authorised officer seizes a document or other article under subsection (3), the authorised officer shall provide the person from whom any document or other article was seized with a list of the documents or articles seized and subsections (2) to (6) of section 41 shall apply with such modifications and adaptations as may be necessary in respect of the seizure.

(5) A financial institution shall, within such time as may be specified by an authorised officer, or in the absence of a specified time, within a reasonable time, comply with any instruction issued or request made by the authorised officer under this section, and where a financial institution fails to do so, the licence of the financial institution may be suspended until the institution complies with the instruction or request.

(6) An authorised officer is not required to notify a financial institution of an intended inspection prior to the conduct of the inspection.

(7) For the avoidance of doubt “documents relating to the business of the financial institution” includes business transaction records.

(PREVENTION AND CONTROL) ACT, 2011 – 23

Authority may give directives.

33. (1) Notwithstanding sections 34, 35 and 36, where it appears to the Authority that a financial institution is in contravention of this Act but the circumstances are not such as to justify the taking of action under section 34, 35 or 36, the Authority may, by written notice, give such directives to the financial institution as the Authority considers appropriate.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Authority may direct a financial institution, within such period as the Authority specifies, to cease engaging in any activity, behaviour or practice or to take such remedial measures or action as the Authority considers necessary for the financial institution to be in compliance with this Act.

(3) A financial institution shall comply with a directive given to the institution by the Authority under this section.

Administrative sanctions.

34. (1) Where the Authority is satisfied as to any of the following circumstances in respect of a financial institution, the Authority may take, as it considers appropriate, any action specified in subsection (2):

- (a) the directors, managers and senior officers or any other individuals who manage or control the financial institution are not fit and proper persons to manage or control the financial institution;
- (b) the financial institution has failed to comply with or contravened a guideline issued in accordance with section 26;
- (c) the financial institution has failed to comply with a directive given in accordance with section 33; or
- (d) the financial institution is otherwise contravening or has contravened this Act.

(2) The Authority may, pursuant to subsection (1)

- (a) issue a warning or reprimand to the financial institution;

- (b) give such directives as seem appropriate;
- (c) impose on the financial institution, in accordance with section 36, a pecuniary penalty; or
- (d) recommend, in accordance with section 35
 - (i) the suspension of any or all of the activities that the financial institution may have otherwise conducted pursuant to the licence of the financial institution; or
 - (ii) the suspension or revocation of the licence of the financial institution.

(3) A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Authority or, pursuant to section 37, of a regulatory authority or other public authority under this section or section 35 or 36 may appeal to a Judge in Chambers against the decision.

35. (1) Where the Authority is satisfied as to any of the circumstances referred to in section 34(1) in respect of a financial institution, the Authority may, by written notice, recommend to the relevant regulatory authority or other public authority responsible for issuing to the financial institution the licence under which the financial institution carries on business, that the regulatory authority or other public authority of licence.

- (a) suspend any or all of the activities that the financial institution may have otherwise conducted pursuant to the licence; or
- (b) suspend or revoke the licence of the financial institution.

(2) Where the Authority makes a recommendation pursuant to subsection (1), the Authority shall

- (a) specify the reasons for the recommendation; and
- (b) at the same time that the recommendation is sent to the relevant regulatory authority or other public authority, send a copy of the recommendation to the financial institution.

(PREVENTION AND CONTROL) ACT, 2011 – 23

(3) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the relevant regulatory authority or other public authority has the power to

- (a) suspend any or all of the activities that the financial institution may have otherwise conducted pursuant to the licence; or
- (b) suspend or revoke the licence of the financial institution, on any of the grounds specified in section 34(1), provided that the financial institution is first given an opportunity to be heard and to show cause as to why the recommended action should not be taken.

Pecuniary penalties.

36. (1) Where the Authority is satisfied as to any of the circumstances referred to in section 34(1) in respect of a financial institution, the Authority may, by written notice, impose on the financial institution, a penalty of $5 000.

(2) Where by this Act or a guideline made or directive given under this Act, a financial institution is required, by a specified time

- (a) to take a certain measure or action; or
- (b) to cease a particular activity, behaviour or practice, and the Authority is satisfied that the financial institution has failed to do so, the Authority may impose on the institution, in addition to the penalty specified in subsection (1), an additional penalty of $500 for every day or part of a day that the institution failed to take the measure or action or cease the particular activity, behaviour or practice.

- (3) The penalty referred to in subsection (2)
 - (a) may be imposed from the day following the day by which the financial institution was supposed to have taken the measure or action or ceased the particular activity, behaviour or practice; and
 - (b) shall not be imposed in respect of a period of more than 30 days.

- (4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), where the financial institution
- (a) takes the measure or action; or
 - (b) ceases the particular activity, behaviour or practice, the penalty referred to in subsection (2) shall cease to be imposed on the day preceding the day on which the financial institution took the measure or action or ceased the particular activity, behaviour or practice.

(5) A penalty shall not be imposed on a financial institution under this section unless the institution is first given an opportunity to be heard and to show cause as to why the action should not be taken.

(6) Pecuniary penalties imposed and collected under this section shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

37. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act and without prejudice to the functions of the Authority under this Act, a regulatory authority has the primary responsibility to monitor and supervise the persons that it regulates to determine whether the persons are in compliance with this Act.

Functions
regulatory authorities.

(2) Without prejudice to the functions of a regulatory authority under any other law, for the purpose of discharging its responsibility under subsection (1) in respect of persons that the regulatory authority regulates, sections 29, 31 and 33 to 36 apply to the regulatory authority, with such modifications and adaptations as may be necessary, as those sections apply to the Authority.

(3) Where a person is regulated by more than one regulatory authority, the regulatory authorities shall consult and identify from among them, the regulatory authority to assume the primary responsibility under subsection (1).

(PREVENTION AND CONTROL) ACT, 2011 – 23

- (4) For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding
- (a) any other enactment and in particular, any primary enabling enactment; and
 - (b) any function of a regulatory authority under any primary enabling enactment, where it is suspected that a financial institution is contravening or has contravened this Act, any action to be taken by a regulatory authority in respect of the financial institution shall be so taken under this Act.

Power to
assets.

38. On receipt of information under this Act and on being satisfied that it is necessary to do so, the Director may apply to a Judge in Chambers for an order to

- (a) prohibit any person from completing any transaction for a period not exceeding 72 hours; or
- (b) freeze a bank account of a person for a period not exceeding 5 days.
